

University of Washington Interfraternity Council Media Relations Policy

In the event that a formal statement or interview is requested of the University of Washington Interfraternity Council, please abide by the following procedure:

1. All media inquiries received by the officers of the Interfraternity Council involving fraternal organizations at the University of Washington should be directed towards the IFC president. He will collaborate with the Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life to respond to your request in a timely manner.
2. At the discretion of the Interfraternity Council President, media relation requests may be delegated to the Interfraternity Council Director of Public Relations, who may respond on behalf of the Interfraternity Council and/or Interfraternity Council President.
3. Any statement or response produced by the University of Washington Interfraternity Council may be reused or redistributed at the discretion of the University of Washington Interfraternity Council.

To contact the IFC President, please write to:

IFCPres@uw.edu

To contact the IFC Director of Public Relations, please write to:

IFCPr@uw.edu